| 1 | .310.01.f. Medication Distribution. | On 1/6/26, during medication pass observation, the medication technician was observed popping two medications into a medication cup, left the medications on the table for an unsampled resident, and walked away. The unsampled resident was observed eating their meal and after they were completed they took the medications without the medication technician observing. The resident, as well as multiple other residents, stated they often take their medications unsupervised. |
