Item #	Rule (16.03.22)	Description
1	.009.03.b. Availability to Work.	The facility hired a caregiver on 8/22/25, who worked the night shift unsupervised before the facility obtained their background check. A staff member who frequently worked the night shift stated the caregiver frequently provided cares in resident's rooms unsupervised. The facility had not obtained the background at the time of the survey. The administrator stated they should not work unsupervised until their background check was cleared.
2	.330.13.h. Personnel Records.	The facility failed to obtain the results of a Criminal History and Background Check for one of the employees who required it. The facility also failed to obtain the results of Idaho State Police background checks for three employees who required them. The administrator stated the results of the background checks were not obtained nor filed in each employee's personnel file.
